

On May 5, Congressman Honda (D-Calif.), chair of the Congressional Asian Pacific American Caucus Immigration Taskforce, will introduce the Reuniting Families Act (RFA). Honda will discuss various aspects of the bill. Diverse leaders from the immigrant rights community will also speak about the impact our outdated immigration system has had on immigrant communities and the urgency to pass comprehensive legislation that reunites families and is good for America.

WHAT: Telephonic briefing on Reuniting Families Act, an immigration reform bill

WHEN: □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ Thursday, May 5, 2010 ~ 9 a.m. (PST) / 12 p.m. (EST)

HOW: 1-888-349-9587; Conference ID: 8713397

WHO: [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ] [ ] U.S. Rep. Michael Honda (D-Calif.)

Erin Oshiro Immigration and Immigrants' Rights Staff Attorney, Asian American Justice Center

□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ Rachel B. Tiven Executive Director, Immigration Equality

□ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ □ Rev. Austin K. Rios, La Capilla de Santa Maria Episcopalian Church

HOST: Asian American Justice Center

###